

Here are two pictures of my mother at Bosmelet before the Germans occupied the Chateau. Before the family had to: "Run for their lives".

The two photos have been taken on the same day. Perhaps my mother's christening Feb 24 1940. We think that the woman holding H el ene in the lower picture is her godmother Nan Hudson. Barbara Stafford was her Nanny. That uniform looks so uncomfortable. These pictures were sent to me by Barbara's niece, she uncovered them after 75 years. Thank you Pauline.
